To whom it may concern:

Tadej Magajna has worked with AO1 Marketing Inc. in the role of contract web developer and programmer since early 2015. Tadej began supporting our in-house development team by troubleshooting existing projects and eventually was able to take over larger building projects as the sole development lead.

Tadej is the consummate professional who possess a rare combination of technical prowess and strong interpersonal skills. Tadej is fantastic at gathering project requirements to ensure he has a complete understanding of what needs to be done; he always provides us with detailed recommendations when decisions need to be made; and most importantly, he always delivers on time and on budget. Our development team has grown quite fond of Tadej as a person and for his impeccable work habits.

Tadej is a rare find and from my personal experience working with him, I have no other choice but to give my highest recommendation.

I welcome any conversations about Tadej and can be reached at +1 416 670 7620, or roy@ao1.ca.

Sincerely,

Roy Hu
